Mumbai, India – Rashmika Mandanna, often hailed as a trendsetter in the fashion scene, proved once again that she knows exactly what’s in vogue. The Kuberaa actress was recently spotted at Mumbai airport, turning heads with a chic, laid-back travel look—complete with the internet’s latest obsession, the Labubu doll bag charm.

Hopping onto the viral accessory trend, Rashmika carried the cute Labubu doll hanging from her sling bag, instantly grabbing the paparazzi’s attention. Her outfit was all about comfort meets cool—a full-sleeved top, black trousers, and a cozy scarf draped casually around her neck. She kept her accessories minimal, opting for sunglasses and carrying some papers along with her travel essentials.

This understated yet trendy look stood in contrast to her recent glamorous turn during Kuberaa’s pre-release promotions, where she stunned in a blush-pink Anita Dongre saree worth ₹1,60,000. The saree’s intricate floral and bead motifs exuded elegance, and Rashmika styled it with a simple bun and minimal accessories, proving her versatility in switching between traditional grace and modern casual chic.

From stealing hearts in high-end couture to making a statement with viral street-style accessories, Rashmika Mandanna continues to ace the celebrity fashion game—one airport sighting at a time.
