Mumbai, India – Disha Patani continues to dominate the celebrity style charts with her effortless and chic fashion choices. The Kanguva actress was recently spotted enjoying a lunch date in Mumbai with her close friend and fellow actress, Mouni Roy, serving major summer fashion inspiration.

Disha opted for a mint green printed mini dress featuring delicate frills and a criss-cross back design. The Match Maker Criss-Cross Back Frill Trim Dress, priced at approximately ₹6,866 (USD 79.99), perfectly captured the breezy, flirty vibe of the season. She paired the dress with branded heels worth ₹9,999, adding a sophisticated edge to her playful ensemble.

Keeping her style understated yet striking, Disha accessorized with a neutral handbag, wore her hair open, and opted for minimal makeup, letting her natural glow shine. The actress was all smiles as paparazzi clicked her outside the restaurant.

Mouni Roy complemented her BFF's summer vibe in a strapless blue flowy dress, also leaving her hair open for an effortlessly glamorous touch. The duo looked like a stylish force as they exited the eatery and made their way to their car.

On the work front, Disha was last seen alongside Tamil superstar Suriya in Kanguva. She is currently gearing up for Ahmed Khan's upcoming comedy Welcome To The Jungle, headlined by Akshay Kumar. With a filmography that includes Malang, Radhe, Yodha, Kalki 2898 AD, and Ek Villain Returns, the actress continues to balance her acting projects with her ever-impressive public style moments.
