From bold blouses to whimsical gowns, designers are reimagining hearts as the season's most romantic motif.

Rahul Mishra's Bold Take

The ICW opening show by Rahul Mishra saw a model command attention in a sparkling silver dress with a striking inverted heart cutout at the midriff. The risqué detail gave a daring twist to bridal couture, offering inspiration for cocktail blouses or reception-ready gowns.

Tara Sutaria for Roseroom

Serving as showstopper for Isha Jajodia's label Roseroom, Tara Sutaria looked ethereal in an ivory lace skirt paired with a golden corset. The standout feature? A heart-shaped neckline that elevated her look into timeless bridal glamour.

Falguni Shane Peacock's Metallic Hearts

Another ensemble pushed the boundary further—a daring blouse featuring a heart crafted from the meeting beaks of two birds, blending symbolism with couture innovation.

Hearts in Accessories Too

The obsession didn't end with the clothes. Khushi Kapoor's showstopping look was completed with a dazzling heart-shaped emerald choker, proving that this trend extends into jewellery as well.
