

Gauri Khan Shines in Chanel at Aryan Khan's Directorial Debut Launch

Published on 21 Aug 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

At the much-anticipated launch of Aryan Khan's directorial debut, *The Ba**ds of Bollywood**, Gauri Khan captivated the audience with her impeccable fashion sense, donning a luxurious Chanel ensemble that effortlessly blended sophistication with modern flair.

A Masterclass in Luxury Dressing

Gauri Khan's choice of attire for the evening was nothing short of spectacular. She wore a Chanel iridescent cotton tweed jacket from the Spring-Summer 2025 collection, valued at ₹8,73,014.74. The jacket's subtle shimmer caught the light beautifully, adding a touch of glamour to her look. Paired with flared black Chanel trousers, the ensemble offered a sleek silhouette that balanced the structured jacket perfectly. Completing the outfit were classic black platform heels, adding height and elegance without overshadowing the ensemble.

Understated Elegance

True to her style, Gauri kept her accessories minimal, allowing the craftsmanship of her Chanel outfit to take center stage. Her hair was styled in soft waves, and her makeup featured glowing skin with a nude lip and subtle eye definition, maintaining a fresh and unfussy appearance. This understated elegance highlighted her ability to make black attire feel anything but basic, proving that with the right cut and fabric, black can be transformed into a statement of power dressing.

A Proud Family Moment

The event was a significant milestone for the Khan family, with Shah Rukh Khan and Gauri Khan stepping out to support their son Aryan. The evening was filled with emotions, as Aryan presented his vision for the series, and his parents beamed with pride. Gauri's fashion choice not only showcased her personal style but also her support for her son's creative journey.