Bollywood goes all out for Ganpati Bappa's homecoming!

Ganesh Aagman 2025 was nothing short of a glamorous spectacle as Bollywood's biggest stars turned up in their finest ethnic ensembles to welcome Ganpati Bappa. The festival, which symbolizes devotion, joy, and togetherness, also doubled up as a dazzling fashion runway this year, with celebrities setting major festive-style goals.

From regal heirloom sarees to intricately embroidered lehengas, flared kurtas, and ornate jewelry, the sartorial choices were as divine as the celebrations. Each ensemble not only paid homage to Indian tradition but also showcased how contemporary design continues to merge with cultural heritage.

? Style Highlights from the Festive Glamour:

- Heirloom Elegance – Bollywood divas draped in timeless silk sarees, complete with zari borders and heritage weaves, added an old-world charm to the celebrations.
- Festive Chic – Flared kurtas in jewel tones paired with embroidered dupattas dominated the scene, striking the perfect balance between comfort and grandeur.
- Jewelry Statements – Traditional naths, temple jewelry, and polki sets brought in a touch of authenticity, elevating the overall look.
- Modern Twist – Some stars chose contemporary silhouettes in festive hues, blending Indo-western flair with ethnic roots.

Ganesh Chaturthi has always been more than just a festival—it's a cultural celebration where Bollywood's fashion statements become talking points for the season. With Ganpati Bappa's homecoming in 2025, the stars didn't just pray, they also slayed, making this year's festivities one for the fashion books.
