

Evergreen Elegance: Hema Malini Glows in Golden Splendor at Ganesh Chaturthi 2025

Published on 29 Aug 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Ganesh Chaturthi 2025 brought a wave of celebration and devotion across India—but the spotlight also belonged to Hema Malini, who graced the festivities in a radiant yellow ghagra choli that reaffirmed her reputation as Bollywood's forever Dream Girl.

Her outfit was a masterclass in festive finesse. The lehenga featured brocade embroidery with intricate gota-patti borders in gold and green, while the short V-neck kurti boasted delicate quarter-length sleeves and side slits, perfectly balanced between tradition and regal style. Complemented by an A-line silhouette and a green chiffon dupatta with gold motifs, her look radiated warmth, heritage, and sophistication.

She paired the ensemble with classic pearl-laden gold jhumkis, subtle gold bangles, and a striking diamond ring. Her beauty choice—red lips, a small bindi, sindoor, soft kohl, and rose-tinted cheeks—accentuated her poised aura, while her half-tied hairstyle brought a graceful softness to the overall look.

Celebrating alongside her daughter Esha Deol, who chose a vibrant blue lehenga choli with gold embroidery and scalloped borders, they embodied generational elegance. Esha's purple-dupatta and modern glam, including fuchsia lips and winged eyeliner, added youthful flair—making their appearance as touching as it was stylish.

The duo's appearance was more than festive attire—it was a heartwarming tableau of tradition, style, and familial warmth. Hema Malini's stunning ensemble spoke to enduring charm, cultural pride, and aesthetic sophistication. At 75, she continues to remind us that elegance knows no age.

This stunning Ganesh Chaturthi ensemble reaffirmed her legacy—not just as cinema royalty, but as a timeless fashion muse whose style continues to inspire across generations.