Ganesh Chaturthi 2025: 5 Celeb-Inspired Hairstyles To Upgrade Your Desi Fit

Ganesh Chaturthi is almost here, and while your wardrobe may already be stacked with festive kurtas, sarees, and lehengas, one thing that often gets overlooked is the hairstyle. A perfect desi outfit deserves a hairdo that matches the vibe — whether you're welcoming Bappa at home, attending aarti, or heading for a festive get-together.

To help you nail that complete festive glam, we've rounded up five celeb-inspired hairstyles that you can recreate this season.

1. Hair-loom Jewellery (Inspired by Karisma Kapoor)

Straight, sleek hair with a twist! Begin with poker-straight locks and tie them into a low ponytail. Add small bands at equal intervals along the pony, giving it a chic bubble effect. Accessorize with minimal festive jewellery — just like Karisma “Lolo” Kapoor — for that extra oomph.

2. Braided Beauty (Editorial Model Style)

Not for the faint-hearted but absolutely worth the effort. Start with loose beach waves and tie them into a thick statement braid. If you have layers, weave in small minimalist braids from different sections of your hair and blend them all into the main plait. It's equal parts edgy and elegant — a guaranteed festive head-turner.

3. The Model Bun (Gen Z Favourite)

A sleek, modern hairstyle that pairs beautifully with both sarees and Indo-western fits. Pull your hair into a high ponytail, twist it clockwise, and wrap it into a bun — but leave the last flick of hair out for that effortless vibe. Add a gajra or fresh flowers for a desi touch.

4. Half Hair Held Back (Inspired by Manushi Chhillar)

If you're blessed with side-swept bangs, this one's for you. Curl your hair lightly, run your fingers through for a natural bounce, and pin half your hair back, leaving the bangs free. Cover the pins with mogra flowers for a traditional yet modern finish.
