Alia Bhatt's Rekha-Inspired Saree Look Stuns At 'Umrao Jaan' Premiere—Here's Who Else Slayed!

The red carpet rolled out in full glory as Bollywood icons gathered to celebrate the special screening of Umrao Jaan, restored in 4K for a theatrical re-release. Directed by Muzaffar Ali and immortalized by Rekha's unforgettable performance, the film remains a cultural treasure. Last night's premiere was just as much a fashion spectacle as it was a cinematic celebration.

? Alia Bhatt's Ode to Rekha

Alia Bhatt stole the spotlight in a saree that paid tribute to Rekha's timeless style. With her understated glam and graceful drape, she channelled the spirit of the legendary actress while keeping her look young and fresh. The styling felt like a love letter to the diva whose aura continues to inspire generations.

? Rekha: The Eternal Umrao

Of course, the night truly belonged to Rekha ji, the star of Umrao Jaan. Dressed in a gold and white ensemble, adorned with traditional jewellery and gajra, she looked every bit the regal muse she has always been. Her presence was not just nostalgic but a reminder of why her fashion remains iconic and unmatched.

? Hema Malini: The Dream Girl in Banarasi Elegance

Hema Malini opted for a rich Banarasi saree that exuded sophistication. A neat bun decorated with a single red rose tied her whole look together, proving once again that minimalism with heritage classics never goes out of style.

? Tabu: Bold & Bridal

Never one to shy away from making a statement, Tabu arrived in a striking red and gold kurta-sharara set. While some felt her look leaned towards bridal, the chandbalis and gajra ensured it fit right in with the grandeur of the evening. If Umrao Jaan is about drama and grace, Tabu delivered both.

? A Star-Studded Affair

From Anil Kapoor’s sharp suit to Aamir Khan’s understated charm, the guest list was a mix of old-school legends and contemporary stars, all gathered to celebrate an evergreen film. But the night’s biggest talking point? How Bollywood’s leading ladies paid tribute to tradition while giving us major style inspiration.

Our Take

The Umrao Jaan premiere wasn’t just about revisiting a cinematic classic; it was about reviving the essence of old-world glamour. From Rekha’s timeless grace to Alia’s heartfelt homage, the evening celebrated fashion that’s rooted in tradition but still relevant in 2025.
