Khushi Kapoor Brings Anita Dongre To Cannes: A Fashion Diary Worth Bookmarking

The 78th Cannes Film Festival is in full swing, and this year, the Kapoor sisters are turning heads on the French Riviera. While Janhvi Kapoor made her powerful debut with a series of striking looks, her younger sister Khushi Kapoor also made waves with her effortlessly chic wardrobe.

From couture gowns to Parisian-chic separates, Khushi's Cannes photo dump is proof she's quickly becoming a global fashion darling.

? The Anita Dongre Gown That Stole The Show

Khushi walked into the spotlight in a strapless ivory gown by ace couturier Anita Dongre, styled by Tanya Ghavri. What made this look exceptional was the intricate Pichwai work — painstakingly hand-painted by skilled artisans from Rajasthan.

Paired with a classic Lady Dior handbag and her go-to jewelry from Dior and Van Cleef & Arpels, the look was understated yet regal, making a strong case for Indian craftsmanship on the international stage.

? Cottagecore Meets Parisian Chic

But Cannes wasn't just about couture — Khushi brought her playful side to the French Riviera too.

- A monochrome look with cropped bottoms, Mary Janes, a black Dior handbag, and Miu Miu sunnies gave major Parisian vibes.
 - A blue-and-white denim co-ord set with a matching belt and button-down shirt was summer perfection.
 - She also embraced cottagecore fashion, spotted in a yellow corset dress with powder blue lace, and a dreamy ruffled brown-and-purple off-shoulder gown with tiered details flowing to the floor.
