Met Gala 2025: Isha Ambani Stuns In A Bejewelled Anamika Khanna Couture With 20,000 Hours Of Handwork

The Met Gala 2025 was once again a dazzling night of art, fashion, and extravagance—but this year, Isha Ambani proved that the magic truly lies in the details. Dressed in a custom Anamika Khanna ensemble, she not only stayed true to the theme “Tailored for You” but also celebrated Indian heritage and global craftsmanship in a way only she can.

? The Outfit: A Cultural Collage of Elegance

Isha’s ensemble featured an embroidered waistcoat and structured jacket with a dramatic long train, bringing together black, white, and gold in perfect harmony. Every element reflected meticulous artistry, from the corset patterns inspired by African textiles to the 20,000 hours of hand embroidery that went into crafting the couture masterpiece.

The real showstopper? The look was elevated with gemstones from the Ambani family collection, adding priceless heritage to the global red carpet.

? Details That Make The Difference

Inspired by Black dandy style, the look celebrated individuality and flair while staying rooted in tradition. The pearl work, gemstones, and intricate embroidery showcased Khanna’s genius in merging craft with couture.

Completing the look, Isha opted for earth-toned makeup with heavy browns, paired with a half-braid ponytail, adorned with a statement pin. Oversized diamond jewels added just the right amount of drama.

? Why This Look Matters

The Met Gala is all about pushing boundaries, and with her fifth appearance, Isha Ambani has truly cemented her place as a global fashion icon. By blending Indian craftsmanship with global influences, she highlighted how couture can carry stories of culture, tradition, and modernity all at once.

As India’s presence at the Met Gala grows stronger, Isha’s 2025 look sets a new benchmark in luxury, detail, and representation.

? Final Word:

From Anamika Khanna's painstaking embroidery to heritage gemstones, Isha Ambani’s Met Gala 2025 look was a masterclass in couture storytelling. Indians have officially arrived at the global fashion stage—and Isha is leading the way.
