Kareena Kapoor's Tulle & Pearl Saree By Manish Malhotra Was The Ultimate Lakmé Fashion Week Look

The FDCI X Lakmé Fashion Week 2025 wrapped up with an unforgettable finale, and who better to close it than the queen of the runway herself—Kareena Kapoor Khan. In honour of the fashion week's 25th anniversary, Kareena returned as the face of Lakmé, and her grand ramp walk proved once again why she remains Bollywood's eternal style icon.

? Bebo's Showstopping Saree

Styled by Rhea Kapoor, Kareena's custom ivory tulle saree by Manish Malhotra was nothing short of spectacular. The outfit combined sensuality with elegance, featuring:

- Delicate lacework with come-hither appeal
- A pearl and bead-embellished blouse that elevated the look
- Crystal detailing and vintage pearls woven into intricate embroidery
- A floor-sweeping cape that added drama and grace

The ensemble was completed with a floral-shaped statement necklace, striking the perfect balance between modern couture and timeless charm.

? "Timeless Couture" By Manish Malhotra

The ace designer described Kareena's look as "timeless couture", and it truly lived up to the name. The outfit not only celebrated Indian craftsmanship but also embodied Malhotra's signature glamour that continues to dominate India's fashion scene.

? Kareena's Grand Return

Apart from owning the ramp, Kareena also marked her official return as Lakmé's brand face, delivering a heartfelt speech that reflected her long association with the brand. The star's confidence and charisma ensured that the finale wasn't just about fashion, but also about legacy and influence.
