The New Face of KALKI Bridal Couture 2025

KALKI Bridal Couture 2025 introduces Tamannaah Bhatia as its radiant muse. Known for her grace and pan-Indian appeal, she embodies the collection’s vision of modern elegance grounded in tradition.

This year’s theme, “From Royal Heritage to Modern Heirloom,” bridges the grandeur of Indian wedding traditions with contemporary sensibilities. It positions the bride—and similarly the groom—as confident, rooted, and unapologetically themselves.

Craftsmanship Meets Emotion

KALKI’s spokesperson, Saurabh Gupta, puts it brilliantly:

> “This collection is our ode to the modern couple… it’s not just about looking regal, it’s about feeling seen.”

With carefully curated details like hero dupattas, coordinated silhouettes, and refined textiles, KALKI builds emotional resonance into every thread.

A Bridal Collection Designed for Today

This line reimagines bridalwear for modern couples and evolving wedding rituals. From timeless pheras to soulful after-parties, the collection balances tradition with versatility.

Lightweight and travel-friendly fabrics support destination weddings. Silhouettes transition seamlessly—what starts off as ornate bridalwear becomes perfect for evening celebrations.

Designs like kali lehengas, corset blouses, fish-cut skirts, and ethereal organza gowns anchor the collection. These silhouettes project a contemporary approach, while still honoring heritage.

Men’s wear evolves too—from classic sherwanis and bandhgalas to Jodhpuris and tuxedos in luxe materials such as brocade, velvet, silk, and premium suiting fabrics.

A Palette of Emotions

Colours play a crucial role in storytelling here. Bridal shades span deep reds and maroons, romantic pinks, ivory tones, pastels, metallic golds, and rich jewel hues. Men’s attire features ivories, creams, navy, burgundy, and charcoal, forming complements to the bridal tones.

Tamannaah: The Perfect Emissary

As the face of the campaign, Tamannaah brings poise, versatility, and subtle power—perfectly reflecting the emotionally layered designs.

Her presence reinforces KALKI's ethos: embrace one's individuality through style, own your cultural roots, but carry them forward in your own light.

Where to Explore KALKI Bridal Couture '25

The collection is already accessible at KALKI's flagship stores across India. It can also be shopped online, with international shipping available to destinations including the US, UK, UAE, Canada, and Australia. Virtual consultations and curated pop-ups extend this reach further.
