

Tara Sutaria Stuns as Amrin Khan's Grand Finale Showstopper

Published on 04 Sep 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

The crescendo of Amrin Khan's “Kahaniya” collection at Ahmedabad Times Fashion Week was nothing short of spectacular, thanks to one unforgettable moment: Bollywood’s glowing star Tara Sutaria closing the grand finale walk with refined elegance and undeniable presence.

An Iconic Closure

The designer captioned her Instagram statement poignantly: “A night I’ll never forget. Closing the Grand Finale for Amrin Khan...” Positioned as the evening’s showstopper, Tara embodied the couture drama and emotional resonance of the “Kahaniya” collection—a celebration of storytelling through embroidery, fluid drapes, and royal silhouettes.

Couture Craft Meets Camera

Media coverage and promotional posts highlighted the moment as pure fashion grandeur: “The breathtaking presence of showstopper @tarasutaria added unmatched grace to the runway, making it a night of pure fashion grandeur.” Each frame captured her as a silhouette of modern grace—modeling not just clothes, but the very essence of Amrin Khan’s narrative.

Element	Key Impact
Emotional Symbolism	The “Kahaniya” collection—meaning “stories”—came alive through Tara’s regal persona, anchoring the show’s poetic arc.
Star-Power Blend	Tara’s popularity brought mainstream attention to Ahmed- fashion’s message of craftsmanship and cultural expression.
Couture Highlight	The finale elevated the entire runway—from sets to fabrics—by ending on a note of elevated theatrical flair.

Behind the Scenes & Buzz

Several Instagram posts—and reels from the official Times Fashion Week account—immortalized the moment: “A moment of pure elegance... @tarasutaria shines with grace in the media bytes for @amrinkhanofficial” and “A finale to remember: @amrinkhanofficial redefined luxury at ...” The feedback speaks to the emotional and aesthetic resonance Tara brought to the finale.

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com