

Accessories That Made a Statement at GQ Best Dressed 2025

Published on 10 Sep 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

At GQ India's Best Dressed 2025 event, accessories took center stage, redefining the art of styling with drama, elegance, and individuality. From pearl-encrusted headpieces to diamond-studded brooches, and from bold statement necklaces to whimsical handbags, each accessory told a story of creativity and character.

Headgear Highlights

- Hustle Rani (Ankita Chawla): Elevated her look with delicate pearl details, spotted on hair accessories, earrings, rings, and even her blouse. The unexpected lotus motif on her bag drew added attention, bringing freshness to her ensemble.
- Roshini Kumar: Showcased a fusion of old-school fashion with an androgynous twist, layering necklaces with statement boots and a chic beret for effortless flair.
- Jonita Gandhi: Her feathered headgear by Belinda Bawa was instantly iconic, paired with Outhouse's diamond mesh hand accessory, evoking the glamour of the 1920s cabaret era.
- Mandira Bedi: Opted for a pearl-encrusted bra and headpiece, adding a touch of opulence to her ensemble.
- Neha Singh: Wore a unique headgear, complementing her outfit with Toshada's hand-knitted pearl cover-up.
- Kunal Rawal: Styled a beret with suspenders, proving headgear remains a daring statement.

Statement Jewelry

- Manish Malhotra: His velvet suit was adorned with a diamond-encrusted collar brooch and animal figurine buttons, redefining regal elegance.
- Harsh Varrdhan Kapoor: Chose ornate Chrome Hearts accessories, marked by art deco influences.
- Sahil Salatia, Mannat Sandhu, and Mozez Singh: Leaned into bold statements with neckpieces and layered jewelry, showcasing individuality and fearless styling.
- Param Sahib: Added a unique touch with DIY gold leather dragonflies, making a bold statement.

Arm Candy

- Shalini Passi: Embodied her signature over-the-top aesthetic with a rose-shaped, diamond-encrusted Judith Leiber handbag, perfectly matched to her outfit.
- Harish Ramaswamy: Chose a bag that added understated sophistication, proving that arm candy is as essential to style as jewels and headgear.
