

Bold Saree Draping Styles for Durga Puja 2025:

Published on 12 Sep 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Durga Puja 2025 witnessed Bollywood actresses redefining traditional saree draping styles, blending heritage with contemporary flair. Here are five standout looks that inspired festive fashion this season.

1. Kajol: Modern Elegance in Beige Saree Gown

Kajol captivated audiences with a beige saree gown by Shantnu & Nikhil. The ensemble featured a corseted bodice and a one-shoulder neckline, merging the grace of a saree with the structure of a gown. This fusion look exemplified modern elegance, making it a top pick for festive occasions.

2. Kareena Kapoor Khan: Sustainable Glamour in Black and Gold

Kareena Kapoor Khan celebrated 25 years in the film industry with a black and gold Banarasi saree gown by Amit Aggarwal. Crafted sustainably from a vintage saree, the outfit showcased intricate embroidery and a contemporary silhouette, highlighting the actress's commitment to eco-friendly fashion.

3. Janhvi Kapoor: Kashmiri Craftsmanship in Resham Saree

At the Toronto Film Festival, Janhvi Kapoor turned heads in a resham saree by Abu Jani Sandeep Khosla. The saree honored Kashmiri craftsmanship, paired with an upcycled vintage jamawar jacket. This ensemble paid homage to traditional artistry while embracing modern styling.

4. Tamannaah Bhatia: Zardozi Embellishments in Dark Green Draped Saree

Tamannaah Bhatia donned Masaba Gupta's 'Trikone Draped Saree' in dark green, featuring intricate gold detailing and a zardozi-embroidered blouse. The geometric drape added a contemporary twist to the classic saree, making it a bold choice for festive celebrations.

5. Shilpa Shetty: Pre-Draped Satin Saree in Silver-Gold

Shilpa Shetty opted for a pre-draped satin saree in neutral silver-gold by label 431-88. The pallu was smartly attached to her crop blouse, offering a blend of comfort and style. This modern take on the saree was both practical and chic, perfect for the festivities.
