

Sharvari Wagh and Ibrahim Ali Khan walk Amit Aggarwal's Show

Published on 12 Sep 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Bollywood stars Sharvari Wagh and Ibrahim Ali Khan mesmerized audiences as showstoppers at Amit Aggarwal's "EXON: The Code of Light."

Moreover, the event celebrated Indian heritage fused with French luxury, setting a new standard in couture fashion.

Sharvari Wagh's Ethereal Couture Moment

Sharvari Wagh walked the runway in a ceremonial couture gown blending Banarasi craftsmanship with futuristic design elements.

Additionally, the ensemble featured interwoven polymers and delicate handcrafted details, sculpting strength, elegance, and modern sophistication.

This creation radiated timeless beauty while staying faithful to Aggarwal's vision of merging heritage with innovation.

Ibrahim Ali Khan's Regal Modern Look

Ibrahim Ali Khan complemented Sharvari with a sharply tailored bandhgala incorporating Aggarwal's signature Banarasi cording.

Consequently, the heritage-inspired outfit gained a modern, structured twist that emphasized bold sophistication.

His confident strides across the crystalline runway demonstrated how tradition can transform into contemporary artistry.

A Star-Studded Evening of Artistry

Acclaimed actor Kalki Koechlin joined the showcase, raising a symbolic toast to artistry and her French lineage.

Meanwhile, pianist Sahil Vasudeva enhanced the ambiance with a refined live performance, setting an elegant tone.

The runway transformed into a crystal-inspired corridor, reflecting alpine aesthetics that shimmered with every creation.

Amit Aggarwal's Vision and Inspiration

Designer Amit Aggarwal described the showcase as an exciting journey, noting the energy shared among the team.

Furthermore, he revealed inspiration from the French Alps, a landscape representing luxury, refinement, and natural brilliance.

Aggarwal emphasized that blending Indian Banarasi heritage with French elegance creates a new global design language bridging cultures.

The EXON finale highlighted Amit Aggarwal's innovative philosophy and showcased Indian couture on an international stage.

Consequently, the event demonstrated how traditional techniques integrate seamlessly with global trends, setting a precedent for future couture presentations.
