

Sanya Malhotra Stuns in Grey Alberta Ferretti Gown at TIFF 2025

Published on 13 Sep 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

At the 2025 Toronto International Film Festival (TIFF), Sanya Malhotra captivated audiences with her poised and graceful presence.

She attended the world premiere of her film Bandar (Monkey in a Cage) and showcased sartorial elegance that perfectly complemented the film's intense narrative.

Outfit Details

For the event, Sanya wore a strapless gown from Alberta Ferretti, the renowned Italian fashion house celebrated for its sophisticated designs.

The fitted bodice accentuated her silhouette, while the flowing skirt added movement and an ethereal charm.

Moreover, she draped a silk grey stole over her shoulders, introducing a subtle ethnic contrast to the contemporary ensemble.

Additionally, the stole added texture and depth, ensuring her look remained visually captivating from every angle.

Styling and Accessories

Sanya's styling reflected minimalism yet made a powerful statement.

She chose understated makeup that highlighted her natural beauty, allowing the outfit to remain the focal point.

Furthermore, her delicate jewelry perfectly complemented the ensemble without overpowering it.

Her hair, elegantly styled, enhanced the overall sophistication, while the silk stole completed a harmonious balance between modernity and classic elegance.

Together, these choices demonstrated her keen fashion sensibility and attention to detail.

Reception and Impact

Sanya Malhotra's appearance received widespread acclaim from both fashion critics and fans.

Many praised her for transforming grey—a color often considered neutral—into a chic and elegant statement.

Moreover, observers noted that her ensemble demonstrated versatility, sophistication, and a keen understanding of contemporary fashion nuances.

As a result, her look resonated with audiences worldwide and solidified her reputation as a fashion-forward actress.

Consequently, Sanya continues to set high standards for red carpet appearances while inspiring fans and fashion enthusiasts alike.
