

Disha Patani Dazzles at Calvin Klein NYFW Show

Published on 15 Sep 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Bollywood actress Disha Patani captivated audiences at the Calvin Klein Spring 2026 show during New York Fashion Week, held on September 12, 2025

A Striking Fashion Statement

At the event, Patani showcased a sleek black ensemble that exuded sophistication and confidence. The outfit featured a satin slip dress with a plunging neckline and a daring low back, complemented by strappy heels. Her minimalistic styling included dewy makeup, bronzed tones, and softly waved hair, embodying the essence of understated elegance.

Social Media Buzz

Patani shared her look on Instagram, garnering widespread attention. Friends and fans flooded the post with compliments, with actress Mouni Roy commenting, "My Baby," and fans praising her resilience and beauty. One user remarked, "Neither your family nor you is standing alone, Disha," reflecting public support following the recent events.

The Bareilly Incident

Just days before the fashion show, on September 12, unidentified assailants opened fire outside Patani's father's residence in Bareilly. Her father, Jagdish Patani, a retired police officer, confirmed that 8-10 rounds were fired using foreign-made weapons. The Goldy Brar group later claimed responsibility for the attack, allegedly linked to comments made by Patani's sister, Khushboo Patani, about certain spiritual leaders. The family maintains that her remarks were misrepresented.

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com