Glam Makeup Details

Alia’s makeup showcased her signature “less is more” philosophy. Her complexion was luminous, with subtle blush and bronzer adding warmth. Eyes were softly defined with neutral eyeshadow, light eyeliner, and mascara, while her brows remained naturally filled. A soft, natural-toned lipstick completed the understated elegance of her look.

Effortless Wavy Hair

Her hair was styled in relaxed, slightly wavy locks, parted to the side and cascading over one shoulder. Some strands framed her face, enhancing the effortless, beachy vibe of the ensemble.

Alia Bhatt’s “island girl” glam look is a perfect blend of natural beauty and chic simplicity, making it an ideal inspiration for those seeking a fresh and radiant appearance.
