

Selena Gomez Stuns in Red Gown at 2025 Emmys with Fiancé Benny

Published on 15 Sep 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

At the 2025 Primetime Emmy Awards, Selena Gomez turned heads as she walked the red carpet with her fiancé Benny Blanco. Together, they looked effortlessly glamorous, instantly becoming one of the most photographed duos of the evening. Fans and fashion critics alike praised Gomez's striking presence. Moreover, their coordinated styling added to the couple's red carpet impact.

The Red Louis Vuitton Gown

Selena chose a custom red Louis Vuitton gown that combined elegance with drama. The dress featured a halter neck and a long, flowing scarf detail cascading down her back, adding movement as she walked. Its vibrant hue stood out among the other evening gowns, making her a key fashion highlight of the night.

In addition, she accessorized with sparkling diamond earrings and minimal jewelry, allowing the dress to take center stage. Her hair and makeup complemented the gown perfectly: soft waves, a natural glow, and subtle smokey eyes enhanced her look without overpowering it.

Benny Blanco Matches in Style

Meanwhile, Benny Blanco complemented Selena's ensemble with a sleek all-black outfit. He wore an embroidered dress shirt with fitted trousers and polished leather sandals. Together, their outfits created a cohesive and balanced look. As a result, the couple received praise for their fashion synergy.

Red Carpet Chemistry

The pair's affectionate display, from hand-holding to smiles for photographers, made headlines. Furthermore, fans noted how seamlessly their outfits harmonized while reflecting their individual personalities. Their appearance demonstrated how celebrity couples can combine fashion and personal style to create a memorable red carpet moment.

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com