

Avneet Kaur for the premeire of Love in Vietnam

Published on 15 Sep 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

At the premiere of her upcoming Indo-Vietnamese romantic drama, Love in Vietnam, actress Avneet Kaur turned heads with her bold fashion choice. She donned a striking red backless gown featuring a dramatic thigh-high slit, effortlessly blending glamour with elegance. Her confident stride and radiant smile captivated photographers and fans alike, making her the undeniable star of the evening.

Styling That Stood Out

Avneet's ensemble was complemented by a sleek, side-parted ponytail, adding a contemporary twist to her classic look. Minimalist jewelry allowed the gown to take center stage, while her makeup highlighted her natural beauty, enhancing her overall appearance.

Grace Under Public Scrutiny

Despite recent social media buzz involving cricketer Virat Kohli, Avneet handled the situation with remarkable poise. When questioned about the incident, she responded gracefully, stating, "May the love keep coming," effectively diffusing the controversy and redirecting focus to her professional achievements.

A Rising Star in the Spotlight

With Love in Vietnam set to release in theaters on September 12, 2025, Avneet continues to prove her versatility as both an actress and a fashion icon. Her appearance at the premiere not only showcased her sartorial elegance but also her ability to maintain composure under public scrutiny, solidifying her status as a rising star in the entertainment industry.

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com