

Charli XCX and George Daniel Celebrate Second Wedding in Sicily

Published on 15 Sep 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

On September 14, 2025, singer Charli XCX and George Daniel, drummer of The 1975, celebrated their second wedding in the scenic town of Scopello, Sicily. The couple had previously tied the knot in a private London ceremony in July. This Sicilian celebration offered a more festive occasion for close friends and family. The coastal setting provided breathtaking views, creating a dreamy backdrop for their elegant celebration.

Charli's Ethereal Wedding Ensemble

Charli stunned in a custom Danielle Frankel gown made from ivory silk chiffon. The dress featured a bias-cut slip silhouette, spaghetti straps, and an internal bustier for support. Additionally, cascading chiffon ribbons, hand-embroidered organza micro petals, and baroque pearl embellishments added delicate detailing.

She completed her look with white silk Kennedy pumps, silver earrings, and a bouquet of eucalyptus, baby blue, and gypsophila. Overall, the ensemble created a fairytale-like appearance that captured the romance of the day.

George Daniel's Stylish Ensemble

George complemented Charli's bridal elegance with a relaxed griegie suit, a cream shirt, and black Oxford shoes. His understated style perfectly balanced Charli's intricate gown. Together, they made a picture-perfect pair for the Sicilian celebration.

The intimate ceremony included close friends and family, such as Matty Healy, frontman of The 1975, and his mother, actress Denise Welch. Their presence added glamour and musical legacy, highlighting the couple's connections in the music and entertainment industries.

A Celebration to Remember

Following the ceremony, guests enjoyed a lively afterparty with a Champagne fountain, cocktails, and live musicians. The stunning coastal views added to the ambiance. Later, the party moved to a "rave cave," where some guests danced until 9 a.m. the next morning. This lively celebration reflected the couple's fun-loving spirit and dedication to creating memorable experiences for their loved ones.

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com