Published on 17 Sep 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Myntra's Big Fashion Festival begins September 20, and runs through October 5. Because festive season demands glamour, the sale features sarees among its key offerings.

Besides fashion, discounts are heavy; shoppers should expect deals across categories.

First, sarees offer elegance during weddings, pujas, and family gatherings. Then, variety in fabric, print, color pleases traditional and contemporary tastes. Moreover, this sale helps buyers afford premium sarees that might otherwise cost more. Also, early bird deals make top picks more accessible.

Four Sarees to Watch Out For

Here are four standout sarees Zee News recommends; each suits different festive moods.

1. Silk Blend Zari Saree

Solid base with gold zari border, perfect for classic wedding functions.

Complement with heavy jewellery; wear with golden heels to complete regal look.

2. Printed Chiffon Saree

Lightweight and flowy, ideal for daytime prayer ceremonies or mehendi.

Pastel prints and soft fabric make it comfortable and photogenic.

3. Velvet Work Saree

Rich texture, deep hues, embroidered motifs give elegant look at night functions.

Prefer minimal accessories, since the saree itself commands attention.

4. Georgette Sequin Saree

Shimmering finish and modern cut—good choice for party-evenings.

Also, sequins reflect light beautifully in festooned venues.

Shopping Tips: Maximize Your Deal

To make most of the Big Fashion Festival, plan ahead. First, shortlist favorite sarees before September 20. Second, check size, return policies, and delivery timelines; festival rush may cause delays.

Third, use filters to target styles—silk, georgette, velvet, and designer labels—to save time.
