

Melania Trump's Yellow Dress at Banquet Sends Bold Message

Published on 18 Sep 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

At the UK State Banquet on September 17, 2025, Melania Trump made a striking appearance in a yellow off-shoulder gown by Carolina Herrera. The dress featured a contrasting pink belt, pairing bold colors that sparked conversation. Her husband, President Donald Trump, complemented her in a classic white-tie tuxedo.

Stylist's Interpretation

Celebrity stylist Marian Kwei, a Vogue contributor, analyzed Melania's outfit as a deliberate message. Speaking to the BBC, Kwei suggested that the unconventional color combination symbolized the Trumps' approach to forging their own path. She remarked, "Her choice of bold punctuation of clashing color palette states clearly Trump's modus operandi that he will continue to do things his own way." Hindustan Times

Public Reaction

The gown elicited mixed reactions from the public. Some praised Melania's daring choice, while others criticized the bright yellow hue and the pink belt. One social media user commented, "I do not care for Melania's dress. A rare miss for her. Not flattering and the color yellow is too harsh." Another quipped, "That dress is horrendous. Sorry, I've never seen Melania in a poor fashion choice, but this is it."

Complementary Accessories

To complete her ensemble, Melania opted for sparkling, dangling earrings and wore her hair down in soft waves. These choices added a touch of elegance to her bold outfit.

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com