On September 17, 2025, Mumbai hosted the premiere of Aryan Khan's directorial debut, *The Bads Of Bollywood. The red carpet attracted numerous Bollywood stars, including Ranbir Kapoor, Alia Bhatt, Vicky Kaushal, and Shah Rukh Khan. Moreover, filmmakers like Atlee joined the event, creating a high-profile gathering. In addition, the premiere was covered extensively across social media, news portals, and YouTube.

Madhuri Dixit's Show-Stopping Look

Madhuri Dixit made heads turn with her elegant black Ashdeen Sari Gown. The gown was hand-embroidered in the traditional Parsi Gara style, highlighting exquisite craftsmanship. Styled by Sukriti Grover, the ensemble balanced modern design with cultural heritage.

Additionally, Madhuri paired the gown with subtle jewelry and soft makeup, emphasizing sophistication.

Arrival With Dr. Shriram Nene

Madhuri Dixit walked the red carpet alongside her husband, Dr. Shriram Nene. Their coordinated appearance added elegance to the premiere, capturing media attention instantly. Furthermore, their chemistry and presence reflected warmth and glamour, resonating with fans and photographers alike. Social media platforms, including Instagram and Filmfare, shared Madhuri's red carpet moments extensively.

Fans praised her choice of outfit, appreciating the blend of tradition and contemporary fashion. News18 highlighted the presence of several Bollywood stars, emphasizing Madhuri Dixit's show-stopping appearance. Meanwhile, YouTube channels posted videos capturing her elegant walk and interactions with fellow celebrities.
