On September 17, 2025, Mumbai hosted the glamorous premiere of Aryan Khan's directorial debut, The Bads of Bollywood.

The event saw Bollywood celebrities, media, and fans gather for a night of glitz, glamour, and celebration. Among the many stars, Shanaya Kapoor made a striking appearance that immediately captured attention and praise.

Shanaya Kapoor's Show-Stopping Look

Shanaya entered the red carpet in a glittering green corset gown that exuded modern elegance and sophistication. The dress featured intricate sequin detailing and a structured silhouette, highlighting her fashion-forward sensibility. Furthermore, the gown's shimmering green hue perfectly complemented her skin tone, making her stand out instantly.

A Fashion Statement

The gown's deep neckline and form-fitting design accentuated Shanaya's graceful poise and feminine charm. She paired the ensemble with minimalistic accessories, letting the gown remain the focal point of her look.

Her sleek hairstyle and subtle makeup enhanced her natural beauty, balancing glamour with sophistication.

Social Media Buzz

Shanaya's appearance quickly trended across social media platforms, drawing admiration from fans and fashion enthusiasts. Many praised her bold and stylish choice, while several posts shared images and videos of her red carpet moment. Consequently, the look reinforced Shanaya Kapoor's growing reputation as a contemporary style icon in Bollywood.

Shanaya Kapoor's presence at the premiere of The Bads of Bollywood highlighted her evolving fashion sensibility. Her green corset gown not only showcased her personal style but also set a benchmark for red carpet elegance.
