

Suhana Khan Dazzles in Versace

Published on 19 Sep 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Suhana Khan turned heads at the premiere of *The Bads of Bollywood, Aryan Khan's directorial debut, held in Mumbai. She showcased her fashion prowess in a striking Versace gown, making a memorable statement on the red carpet.

The Versace Gown

Khan wore a vibrant yellow asymmetric evening gown from Versace, crafted in liquid jersey fabric. Valued at approximately ₹2.95 lakh, the gown featured side-draped panels that added fluidity and movement. The standout detail was the Medusa '95 hardware on one shoulder, symbolizing Versace's iconic luxury.

Styling and Accessories

Opting for a minimalist approach, Khan paired the gown with delicate gold accessories and strappy metallic heels. Her makeup was fresh and understated, with nude tones highlighting her natural beauty. Softly styled straight hair completed the look, allowing the gown to remain the focal point.

Social Media Buzz

Sharing her ensemble on Instagram, Khan captioned it: "The Ba*ds of Bollywood out now!! #thebadsofbollywoodonnetflix". The post garnered thousands of likes and comments, with fans praising her stunning fashion moment.

Suhana Khan's appearance at the premiere exemplified how bold color, precise tailoring, and subtle details can create a standout fashion moment. Her choice of the Versace gown has become one of her most talked-about style statements, reinforcing her position as a fashion icon in the industry.

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com