Kim Kardashian has achieved a significant milestone in her fashion journey by gracing the October 2025 cover of Vogue France. This issue, dedicated to high jewelry and the theme of love, features Kardashian adorned in over 700 Cartier diamonds, totaling more than 44 carats. The shoot took place at the Hôtel Le Bristol Paris during Couture Week, capturing a moment of understated luxury.

The Jewelry Details

Kardashian's ensemble includes the Pluie de Cartier necklace in white gold, set with 474 brilliant-cut diamonds totaling 30.11 carats. Complementing the necklace are Pluie de Cartier earrings, each featuring 15 diamonds for a combined 1.90 carats, and a bracelet adorned with 203 diamonds, amounting to 12.71 carats. In total, she wore 702 diamonds, showcasing Cartier's craftsmanship.

A Minimalist Aesthetic

In line with the theme of the issue, Kardashian's look is minimalist yet striking. Therefore her makeup is nearly absent, allowing her natural beauty to shine through. This approach contrasts with her previous high-glamour appearances, presenting a more authentic and refined image.

Behind the Lens

The cover photo was captured by Anthony Seklaoui, known for his ability to blend elegance with intimacy. Thus setting at Hôtel Le Bristol adds to the luxurious ambiance, providing a serene backdrop that highlights Kardashian's presence and the exquisite jewelry.

Kardashian's Reflection

On Instagram, Kardashian expressed her excitement, stating, "First French Vogue cover wearing just Cartier! I will never get use to this! I have a magazine bucket list and this was on mine for my whole life!!!" Her words reflect the significance of this achievement in her illustrious career.
