

Blake Lively Celebrates 18 Years of Gossip Girl

Published on 22 Sep 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Blake Lively recently marked the 18th anniversary of Gossip Girl. The show premiered on September 19, 2007. Moreover, she shared nostalgic photos and heartfelt memories.

A Post Full of Emotion and Memory

She posted behind-the-scenes shots with co-stars and creators. Also, she captioned, “the summer gossip girl turned 18...” She called the set her college, her teacher, her social life.

She recalled long nights, early mornings, and Silvercup Studios. Sometimes filming in New York. Sometimes in Paris.

Co-Stars & Behind-Scenes Faces

Photos include Chace Crawford, Ed Westwick, Leighton Meester, Penn Badgely, Michelle Trachtenberg. Also the show’s creators, Josh Schwartz and Stephanie Savage.

These images highlight camaraderie, laughter, and off-camera moments. They remind fans of the bond beyond the drama of the show’s plot.

What Gossip Girl Meant to Her

Lively said Gossip Girl was her education. Also, her “hard work, late nights and early mornings.” She referred to the show as a “university” of experience.

She emphasized growth: from newcomer to someone shaped by a demanding job. Also, by relationships, locations, the pressure, the craft.

Recent Reunion & Fun Tidbits

This summer, Blake reunited with a co-star for a commercial for her drink brand, Betty Booze.

Her anniversary post excited fans with glimpses of vintage set photos. Also, fans love behind-the-scene moments because they humanize stars.

Why This Resonate

Eighteen years is longer than many expect for a teen drama’s cultural lifespan. Moreover, Gossip Girl influenced fashion, pop-culture, teen behavior. It wasn’t just TV.

Blake’s reflection shows how impactful formative roles can be. Also, how they stay part of identity even years.

Blake Lively’s tribute reminds us why Gossip Girl still matters. It honors friendships, growth, craft, and nostalgia.

Her post shows gratitude. Also, reveals that sometimes art shapes our lives more than we realize.
