Amruta Fadnavis, wife of Maharashtra Chief Minister Devendra Fadnavis, expressed deep appreciation for the musical saga ‘Mera Desh Pehle: The Untold Story of Shri Narendra Modi’. After attending special screening at the Nita Mukesh Ambani Cultural Centre, she described the performance as a powerful portrayal of Prime Minister Narendra Modi’s dedication to public service.

A Stirring Tribute to Leadership

Amruta Fadnavis shared her sentiments with ANI, stating,

“I felt very good after watching the musical saga based on the life of PM Modi, which shows that he dedicated his life to the service of people. The feeling of patriotism has awakened in every person.”

The musical, penned and produced by lyricist Manoj Muntashir, offers an artistic glimpse into the life and contributions of Prime Minister Modi.

A Star-Studded Evening

The screening attracted several prominent figures from the film industry, including actors Tiger Shroff, Akshay Kumar, and Raveena Tandon. Filmmakers like Vipul Amrutlal Shah and Shefali Shah also attended. Thus expressing enthusiasm about the musical’s portrayal of lesser-known aspects of PM Modi’s life.

Maharashtra Chief Minister Devendra Fadnavis highlighted that the musical is being showcased in six major cities. Therefore aiming to reach a diverse audience and offer insights into the Prime Minister’s journey.

A Nationwide Tribute

Earlier this month, on September 17, a grand presentation of ‘Mera Desh Pehle’ was organized at KD Jadhav Hall in New Delhi to commemorate Prime Minister Modi’s 75th birthday. Finally event featured a blend of music and storytelling, reflecting the Prime Minister’s vision and dedication to the nation.
