

Sonam Kapoor Stuns at Erdem LFW in Bird-Embroidered Dress

Published on 22 Sep 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Sonam Kapoor attended Erdem's London Fashion Week show, turning heads with a striking white dress. The dress featured delicate blue Godawan bird embroidery, a signature motif from Erdem's latest collection.

Styling and Accessories

Sonam kept styling minimal, letting the embroidery take center stage. She paired the look with nude heels. Hair was left in soft waves. Makeup was fresh and natural, highlighting her radiant skin.

Ambika Mod Joins the Fashion Moment

Actress Ambika Mod attended alongside Sonam. Together, they posed for photographers outside the show venue. Their presence added glamour and star power to the Erdem presentation. Fans loved their coordinated elegance.

Why This Look Works

The white base highlights the intricate blue embroidery. The Godawan birds symbolize freedom and grace. Moreover, the flowy silhouette balances sophistication with playful femininity. It's perfect for a high-profile fashion event.

London Fashion Week Highlights

Erdem's collection included delicate florals, bird motifs, and ethereal silhouettes. Attention to texture and embroidery defined the runway.

Celebrities like Sonam Kapoor amplify the collection's visibility, showing how fashion meets star power on the global stage.

Sonam Kapoor proves again that she blends elegance with global trends. Her Erdem LFW appearance is both timeless and modern.

Fans and fashion critics agree—her embroidered Godawan bird dress is a standout moment of London Fashion Week 2025.

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com