

Tamannaah Bhatia Shines in Blazer and Sheer Skirt at Homebound Premiere

Published on 23 Sep 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

At the Homebound premiere on September 22, 2025, Tamannaah Bhatia turned heads with her daring yet refined fashion choice.

Her look combined sharp tailoring with sheer elegance, creating a standout red-carpet moment.

Chic Ensemble

Tamannaah opted for a structured black blazer, exuding power and sophistication.

The blazer was paired with a sheer, pleated skirt that added movement and modern femininity.

Together, the pairing reflected balance between strength and softness.

Sophisticated Accessories

She elevated the ensemble with black Christian Louboutin heels, known for their timeless style and sharp elegance.

A sleek gold necklace added just the right amount of shine, complementing the monochrome palette.

Her accessories were minimal yet impactful, highlighting her thoughtful styling.

Hair and Makeup Perfection

Her hair was styled in soft, messy waves, giving a relaxed yet chic edge to the structured outfit.

Blush-pink cheeks lent freshness to her look, while a pink-nude lip tint brought understated glamour.

Polished eyebrows framed her face beautifully, completing the makeup with subtle finesse.

Modern Elegance on Display

The combination of a powerful blazer and a delicate sheer skirt made her ensemble both contemporary and feminine.

Her styling choices reflected a trend toward blending bold tailoring with airy textures.

This balance showcased her versatility as a fashion-forward star.

A Memorable Red-Carpet Moment

Tamannaah Bhatia's look at Homebound was modern, striking, and elegant.

It cemented her status as a red-carpet style icon with a flair for bold experiments.
