

Urmila Matondkar Mesmerises Fans in Green Maxi Dress

Published on 24 Sep 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Bollywood icon Urmila Matondkar recently dropped photos of herself on Instagram. She wore a green maxi dress. It had a fit-and-flare cut with tie-up sleeves and delicate prints. The outfit looked breezy yet polished. Her sleek ponytail complemented the dress. She also wore glowing makeup. Her radiant smile enhanced her look. She captioned the post: “Green not with envy... just with peace, serenity, beauty and grace.”

Fans in Admiration

The moment her post went live, fans flooded the comments section. One fan wrote: “Urmila is Urmila, none can replace her. Just watched Rangeela last night...” Another said, “Gorgeous girl.” Someone else commented simply: “Damn, what a look!” These reactions show the deep fondness people still harbour for her.

Nostalgia & Iconic Presence

Many fans also noted how Urmila’s photos brought back memories of her golden Bollywood era. Her style in Rangeela and other films was recalled. Even now, her screen presence seems undimmed. She continues to strike a balance between contemporary fashion and classic charm. Thus, she reminds the crowd why she remains a beloved icon.

Beyond the Dress

Besides her outfit, her overall look attracted praise. Observers liked how she kept things fuss-free. Her ponytail was sleek and simple. Her makeup glowed rather than overpowered. Altogether, the look felt fresh. Meanwhile, her signature elegance shone through. She proved that style needs not always be extravagant to be memorable.

Broader Significance

Though she has stepped back from films, Urmila stays active on social media. These style posts keep her in the public eye. Also, they feed into her image as a fashion inspiration. For fans and younger admirers, she shows how grace, confidence and simplicity can make an impact. Her ability to evoke nostalgia while staying relevant is rare

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com