Mira Rajput attended a Ralph Lauren evening event, looking radiant in a floor-length gown. Shahid Kapoor, her husband, publicly praised her look under her Instagram post, calling her a “Stunner.” The event was hosted by Ralph Lauren, and Mira’s timing with Piaget added to the glamour.

The Gown & Its Craftsmanship

Firstly dress is Ralph Lauren’s Shayna Embellished Floral Evening Dress. Secondly crafted in plush velvet adorned with moody floral motifs which are hand-painted in-house by Ralph Lauren artists. Thus gown also features hand-embellishments with bead work, and it has a light sprayed finish to evoke a slight vintage aura.

Silhouette & Style Details

The gown’s silhouette is body-hugging, with spaghetti straps, a plunging V-neckline and a deep back design. There’s a train sweeping the floor, enhancing its evening gown elegance. Therefore skirt flows like a waterfall, combining structure with fluid motion.

Accessories & Beauty Notes

Mira styled her look with statement black onyx earrings and rings. Finally she paired them with embellished stilettos and wore a Piaget Limelight Gala watch. Her hair was styled in centre-parted, soft blowout waves, while makeup featured feathered brows, blushed cheeks, pink lips, mascara-accented lashes, and soft bronzer to highlight her features.
