

Félix Auger-Aliassime Marries Nina Ghaibi in Morocco

Published on 25 Sep 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

After getting engaged last year, Félix Auger-Aliassime and longtime partner Nina Ghaibi were married on September 21, 2025, in Marrakech, Morocco. The timing came just two weeks after Auger-Aliassime made a deep run at the US Open, reaching the semifinals.

Planning, Partners & Priorities

The wedding plans were largely handled by Ghaibi and her family. Auger-Aliassime joked he only really focused on having his suit ready. He also made it his priority that guests felt welcomed, ensuring hospitality and even including a full bar.

Style & Ceremony Moments

For the occasion, the groom chose a Dior suit. Meanwhile, one notable moment showed the couple exchanging vows beneath a grand floral arch, richly decorated with white florals and greenery. Social media posts also captured intimate moments, including the couple kissing after their vows.

Guest List & Community

Attending were close friends and peers from the tennis world. Auger-Aliassime's groomsmen included fellow Canadian players Alexis Galarneau, Joshua Peck, Victor Krustev, Nicaise Muamba, and veteran Vasek Pospisil. Also present were Nina's relatives, including her sister. The view from teammates and tennis colleagues expressed strong support and joy.

Love Story: From 2019 to Forever

Félix and Nina's relationship goes back to March 2019, when they first met. They announced their engagement in November 2024. Over the years, Ghaibi, a professional equestrian, has supported Auger-Aliassime in his career and been a steady presence in his personal life.

After photos and glimpses of the weekend began surfacing, congratulatory messages poured in. Fellow tennis stars like Coco Gauff and others expressed delight. PFSN The general consensus among fans: the ceremony was beautiful, heartfelt, and reflective of their six-year bond.

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com