

Priyanka Chopra & Dia Mirza Reunite in New York

Published on 29 Sep 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Bollywood stars Priyanka Chopra and Dia Mirza recently met up in New York City. Their meeting delighted fans and social media followers alike. The pair, who have known each other since the early 2000s, shared moments in the city together.

Dia posted a snippet from their walk, tagging Priyanka and expressing affection. In her Instagram Stories, Dia wrote, “Love your #travellingbottle ... Love you more.” Priyanka reciprocated, calling the day “the loveliest day with the loveliest girl.”

Captured Moments & Social Media Gestures

In the shared image, they are seen holding water bottles while standing in a park setting. Interestingly, they did not show their faces in the shot. The snapshot focused on their hands instead. Dia added “#UNGA” in her post, indicating the United Nations General Assembly context.

As she bid farewell to New York, Dia wrote:

“Good bye NYC! I carry back inspiration, hope and so much love in my heart.”

She also set the background music as Better Together by Jack Johnson.

Longstanding Friendship & Mutual Respect

Priyanka and Dia have been friends since their Miss India days around 2000. Over the years, they have openly supported each other's work. For instance, when Priyanka's film Heads of State released, Dia praised her performance and strength.

In a public post, Dia had written:

“Priiiiiiii! So damn proud of the strength you embody ... A treat to watch you.”

Why This Reunion Resonates

Their meet-up is more than a casual celebrity photo—it's a testament to enduring relationships in Bollywood. The image offered a softer, more personal side of two public figures.

Moreover, in a world of branded appearances and sponsored content, moments like this feel genuine. It reminds fans that beyond glitz and glamour, there are real connections.

Also, by sharing parts of it on social media, both stars reinforce how public figures now craft narratives around authenticity and closeness.
