

Janhvi Kapoor Stuns in Ivory Embroidered Gown

Published on 29 Sep 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Bollywood actress Janhvi Kapoor recently captivated audiences with her sophisticated style, donning an ivory embroidered gown ahead of the promotional events for her upcoming film, Sunny Sanskari Ki Tulsi Kumari. The gown featured intricate embroidery that added a touch of opulence to its minimalist design. Janhvi complemented the ensemble with dainty jewelry, strappy heels, soft waves, and natural dewy makeup, exuding grace and poise.

Styling Details

Janhvi's choice of attire reflects a harmonious blend of traditional craftsmanship and contemporary fashion sensibilities. The gown's delicate embroidery pays homage to classic design elements, while its modern silhouette ensures a fresh and youthful appeal. This fusion is characteristic of Janhvi's personal style, which often bridges the gap between heritage and modernity.

Sunny Sanskari Ki Tulsi Kumari: Anticipation Builds

Directed by Shashank Khaitan and produced by Dharma Productions, Sunny Sanskari Ki Tulsi Kumari is a romantic comedy that stars Janhvi Kapoor alongside Varun Dhawan, Sanya Malhotra, and Rohit Saraf. The film has generated significant buzz, with its trailer and promotional materials highlighting its quirky storyline and ensemble cast. Fans are eagerly awaiting the film's release, scheduled for October 2, 2025, coinciding with the festive season.

Janhvi Kapoor's appearance in the ivory embroidered gown not only showcases her impeccable fashion sense but also sets the tone for the upcoming film's promotional campaign. As the promotional events unfold, fans can look forward to more such stylish appearances that reflect both her personal style and the essence of her upcoming film.

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com