

Sanya Malhotra in Atsu Off-Shoulder Top and Skirt Combo

Published on 30 Sep 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Bollywood actress Sanya Malhotra recently attended promotions for her upcoming movie Monday, and she did not disappoint. Dressed in a chic Atsu off-shoulder top paired with a matching skirt, Sanya showcased a look that was both simple and striking. Additionally, she completed the outfit with silver pumps, adding a subtle sparkle to her ensemble.

By pairing minimalistic accessories with her elegant outfit, she kept the focus on the clean lines and striking off-shoulder silhouette.

A Closer Look at the Outfit

The Atsu off-shoulder top highlighted Sanya's poised elegance, while the matching skirt created a cohesive and polished look. Moreover, the silver pumps added just the right amount of glam without overpowering the ensemble. Overall, the outfit struck the perfect balance between casual chic and event-appropriate sophistication.

In comparison to more elaborate red-carpet outfits, this look was understated yet effective, proving that simplicity often leaves a lasting impression.

Previous Appearances and Styling Choices

Fans will also remember Sanya's Itrh sari outing on the sets of a TV show, where she demonstrated her effortless approach. Similarly, her choice of a contemporary off-shoulder top and skirt for this promotional event shows her versatility in switching between traditional and modern styles. Consequently, Sanya continues to inspire fans with her adaptive fashion sense, whether on screen or off.

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com