

Nora Fatehi Stuns in Manish Malhotra's Bridal Attire at Dubai

Published on 30 Sep 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Known for her captivating performances, the actress and dancer once again showcased her versatility, embodying the epitome of bridal elegance. Indeed, her appearance left fashion enthusiasts and industry insiders alike in awe.

The Ensemble: Velvet Elegance Meets Regal Embellishments

Nora wore the Inaya Bridal Garnet lehenga, crafted on a lush velvet base. Notably, the silhouette beautifully balanced structure and fluidity, allowing her to glide effortlessly as she walked the ramp. Moreover, the lehenga featured cascading floral zardozi embroidery and metallic vines, which together exuded opulence and highlighted the intricate craftsmanship behind the creation. Consequently, the outfit perfectly merged traditional artistry with contemporary design aesthetics. (Gulf News)

Complementing the ensemble, Nora adorned herself with a diamond jewelry set featuring mint green stones, including a choker, earrings, and a maang tikka. In addition, the 200-carat emerald and diamond jewelry added a touch of regal luxury, further accentuating the deep maroon velvet of the lehenga. As a result, her styling elevated the outfit from exquisite to show-stopping. (Moneycontrol)

Craftsmanship That Speaks Volumes

Interestingly, the lehenga's intricate embroidery was the result of 1,400 hours of meticulous craftsmanship, highlighting the dedication and artistry involved in its creation. Indeed, such painstaking attention to detail ensured that every thread and embellishment contributed to the lehenga's breathtaking allure. (Moneycontrol)

A Global Fashion Statement

Ultimately, Nora's appearance at the Dubai fashion showcase not only highlighted her sartorial elegance but also underscored the global appeal of Indian couture. By bridging the worlds of Bollywood glamour and international fashion, she made a significant impact on audiences worldwide. Furthermore, her ensemble serves as a testament to the fact that Indian bridal couture can seamlessly blend tradition, luxury, and contemporary design.

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com