

Sneakers Editors Love Just As Much As Adidas Sambas

Published on 01 Oct 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Adidas Sambas have surged in popularity for their retro design and comfort. However, if you're seeking alternatives that offer similar style and wearability, here are some top picks:

1. Proenza Schouler Bicolor Leather Low-Top Sneakers

These sneakers feature a similar silhouette to the Sambas but with added suede details and a rippled rubber sole for enhanced traction.

2. Reebok Classic AZ Legacy Sneakers

With a padded construction and foam footbed, these sneakers offer all-day comfort and come in various colors, including a standout cherry red.

3. Vince Mojave Trainer Sneakers

These brown sneakers are versatile and easy to style, making them a must-have for the fall season.

4. Dries Van Noten Mixed Leather Retro Runners

Editors' favorites for their supple suede exterior, slim fit silhouette, and delicate stitching, these sneakers offer a fashion-forward alternative.

5. Proenza Schouler Bicolor Leather Low-Top Sneakers

Offering a similar vibe to the Adidas Sambas, these sneakers provide better traction and a slightly elevated appeal.

6. Onitsuka Tiger Mexico 66 Sneakers

A cult classic, these sneakers gained fame after Uma Thurman wore them in Kill Bill: Volume 1. Note that stock is limited, and resale prices can be steep.

7. Salomon XT-Whisper Sneakers

Known for their versatility, these sneakers are suitable for both weekends and office wear. An editor notes, "These are the sneakers that made me forget about any others."

8. Miu Miu Leather Sneakers

Combining the color of the season, brown, with a fashion-forward buckle, these sneakers are a trendy option.

9. Adidas Taekwondo Mei Ballet Sneakers

Offering a quirky, cool design, these sneakers are easy to mix and match with various outfits and provide comfort similar to the Sambas.

10. Adidas Taekwondo Shoes

Developed with taekwondo in mind, these sleek sneakers offer a cool, laceless take on the brand's trendy Sambas.
