

Lisa Turns Heads in Louis Vuitton at Paris Fashion Week 2025

Published on 01 Oct 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

BLACKPINK's Lisa made a striking appearance at Louis Vuitton's Spring 2026 show during Paris Fashion Week. Thus debuting the brand's innovative Knot Pump. The shoe features a sculptural knot detail at the toe, combining avant-garde design with high fashion. Lisa's choice highlighted her status as a global fashion icon and her close association with the brand.

Key Highlights:

- Innovative Design: The Knot Pump's unique knot detail at the toe adds a sculptural element to the classic pump silhouette, showcasing Louis Vuitton's commitment to innovative footwear design.
- Fashion Statement: Lisa's selection of the Knot Pump underscores her role as a fashion influencer, setting trends and drawing attention to Louis Vuitton's latest creations.
- Brand Collaboration: Often a prominent figure in the fashion industry, Lisa's appearance at the show reinforces her collaboration with Louis Vuitton, highlighting the synergy between the artist and the brand.

Lisa's debut of the Louis Vuitton Knot Pump at Paris Fashion Week 2025 exemplifies the fusion of art and fashion. Thus her choice not only emphasizes the innovative design of the shoe. It also cements her position as a key figure in the fashion world. The Knot Pump is poised to become a sought-after item, reflecting the evolving trends in luxury footwear.

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com