

BLACKPINK's Lisa Stuns in All-Leather Look at Louis Vuitton Paris Show

Published on 01 Oct 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

BLACKPINK's Lisa just made fall fashion a little hotter. After her Global Citizen performance in New York City, the star jetted off to Paris Fashion Week. Meanwhile she attends the Louis Vuitton show as a brand ambassador. Her front-row outfit immediately captured attention and set the tone for fall style.

All-Leather Ensemble Steals the Spotlight

Finally Lisa stepped out in a dark brown leather duster coat, a striking start to her look. Underneath, she wore a black leather bustier paired with a peekaboo monogram leather piece. The outfit was completed with a Y2K-inspired mini skirt. A black grommited leather belt cinched her waist, adding edge and cohesion.

Firstly she carried a black handbag adorned with playful charms. Often it features large and small coin purses, a pink monogram logo. Secondly a chain with charms, and a heart accent. However to complement the outfit, Lisa added gold rings and a simple gold pendant necklace.

Her footwear choice was perfect for fall: sleek black booties. Overall piece of her ensemble highlighted texture, layering, and statement details.

Beauty Details That Perfected the Look

Lisa's beauty choices matched her bold fashion. She wore her medium-length brown hair in soft waves. Her signature bangs framed her face, while cat eyeliner added a subtle edge.

A flush of pink blush enhanced her cheeks, and soft brown lip gloss finished her makeup. Even her nails reflected fall trends. She wore a modern French manicure with a nude base and dark tips. Therefore her super-short nail length proved chic manicures don't require long extensions.

Setting Fall 2025 Trends

Lisa's Louis Vuitton appearance demonstrated how to blend Y2K influences with modern fall fashion. Thus a mix of leather, accessories, and detailed beauty created a cohesive, bold statement. Fans and fashion enthusiasts alike are sure to take inspiration from her look for the season.
