

Jimin Breaks the Internet with Bold Dior Look at Paris Fashion Week

Published on 03 Oct 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

At Paris Fashion Week, Jimin captured more than runway attention. He arrived in Dior's Spring/Summer 2026 show and stunned the crowd. Rather than a conventional outfit, he went shirtless under a smart jacket. Immediately, fans and media erupted with praise and astonishment. In effect, the moment shifted the spotlight from the collection to him.

The Look: Shirtless in Dior

He paired a black dinner jacket with leather trousers, foregoing a shirt entirely. Thus, the ensemble balanced elegance and audacity. The contrast between formal tailoring and bare skin made the outfit provocative yet artful. Meanwhile, his peroxide-blond hair added a striking contrast to the dark clothing. Overall, the styling delivered a dramatic, high-impact image.

Context: A Fashion Return After Military Service

This appearance marked one of Jimin's first major public outings after completing his military service. Given that he had kept a low profile lately, his comeback in such a bold look felt symbolic. Indeed, many saw it as a statement: he's back, with full creative voice. Moreover, the setting — Dior at Paris Fashion Week — made the moment even more significant.

The Reaction: Viral and Electrifying

As soon as Jimin stepped out, social media exploded. Hashtags, tweets, posts, and comments flooded every platform. Many fans called it a "mic drop moment." Others praised his confidence, aesthetics, and fearlessness. In fashion circles, critics debated whether the look challenged norms or reaffirmed his style leadership. Regardless, the consensus was clear: it broke the internet.

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com