

Kylie Jenner Shines in Showgirl-Inspired Schiaparelli Gown

Published on 03 Oct 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Kylie Jenner made a striking appearance at the Schiaparelli Spring/Summer 2026 fashion show during Paris Fashion Week on October 2, 2025. The beauty mogul wore a shimmering silver chainmail dress adorned with '70s-inspired fringe detailing, capturing the essence of showgirl glamour. The dress featured a plunging neckline, asymmetric hemline, and a low-cut back, allowing the silver fringe to shimmer with every movement.

Complementing Accessories and Glamorous Styling

To complete her ensemble, Kylie paired the dress with a matching silver clutch and pointed-toe heels, enhancing the metallic theme. Her accessories included dazzling chandelier earrings that added a touch of elegance. She styled her hair in relaxed Hollywood waves and opted for a blush-stained complexion, exuding timeless glamour.

Supporting Sister Kendall Jenner

Kylie attended the event to support her sister, Kendall Jenner, who closed the Schiaparelli runway show at The Centre Pompidou. Kylie shared behind-the-scenes photos and videos on Instagram, celebrating the special night with the caption, "My sister closed Schiaparelli!!!! So that means I kinda did too right... DREAM NIGHT." The photos featured candid moments, with Kylie assisting Kendall backstage and both sisters glamorously dressed for the occasion.

Reuniting with Rosalía

Inside the venue, Kylie reunited with Spanish singer Rosalía, and the duo delighted fans by recreating a viral TikTok trend. Their playful interaction added a lighthearted touch to the evening, showcasing their close friendship and shared sense of humor.
