

Isha Ambani in Vintage Yellow Diamond Ring at Bvlgari Showcase

Published on 04 Oct 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

On October 1, 2025, Mumbai's Nita Mukesh Ambani Cultural Centre (NMACC) hosted the exclusive Bvlgari Serpenti Infinito exhibition. The event celebrated the fusion of Italian luxury and Indian heritage, attracting global icons like Priyanka Chopra Jonas, Nita Ambani, and Isha Ambani.

Isha Ambani's Tribute to Heritage Jewelry

Isha Ambani captivated attendees with her ensemble, featuring a black couture gown by Ashi Studio and a rose gold Serpenti Divine Monsoon necklace adorned with tanzanites, tourmalines, rubies, and diamonds. Continuing her tradition, she wore a vintage yellow diamond Bvlgari ring from her mother Nita Ambani. However this collection was purchased in New York over 25 years ago.

Nita Ambani's Timeless Elegance

Nita Ambani chose a traditional black and silver handloom pachrangi saree from Swadesh. Pairing with a rani pink silk blouse by Manish Malhotra. She accessorized with emerald earrings from her personal collection and a rare Bvlgari Serpenti Rainforest bracelet encrusted with emeralds and diamonds.

Celebrating Legacy and Luxury

The Bvlgari Serpenti Infinito exhibition not only showcased exquisite jewelry. Moreover it highlighted the importance of heritage in modern fashion. Isha and Nita Ambani's choices underscored the enduring appeal of vintage pieces, blending timeless elegance with contemporary style.

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com