

Malaika Arora Graces Deccan Derby 2025 as Showstopper

Published on 04 Oct 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

At the highly anticipated Deccan Derby 2025 in Hyderabad, Bollywood icon Malaika Arora captivated the audience as the showstopper for designers Rohit Gandhi and Rahul Khanna. Her presence added a touch of glamour to the event, seamlessly blending the worlds of fashion and philanthropy.

A Couture Showcase with a Purpose

The event, titled The Derby Evening: Fashion in its Purest Form, was a private showcase that celebrated elegance, culture, and the timeless spirit of the Derby. It was designed to honor Hyderabad's rich equestrian legacy while spotlighting ongoing initiatives. Therefore aimed at fostering meaningful and lasting change across the nation. Malaika expressed her honor in walking for the designers, stating, "This event isn't just about fashion; it stands for a larger purpose – caring for animals, supporting communities."

Designers Rohit Gandhi & Rahul Khanna

Rohit Gandhi and Rahul Khanna, renowned for their minimalist yet edgy designs, presented a collection. Their creations, characterized by clean lines and innovative silhouettes, resonated with the event's theme of blending tradition with contemporary flair. The duo's commitment to sustainable fashion was evident, aligning perfectly with the event's philanthropic focus.

Malaika Arora: A Fashion Icon with a Heart

Malaika Arora's participation in Deccan Derby 2025 underscores her status as a fashion icon who uses her platform to support meaningful causes. Beyond her sartorial choices, she continues to inspire with her commitment to philanthropy. Overall her ability to merge style with purpose.

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com