Actress Eiza González and tennis star Grigor Dimitrov captivated audiences at the Prada Spring/Summer 2026 show during Milan Fashion Week on September 25, 2025. The couple made a stylish entrance, sitting together in the front row and drawing attention with their coordinated outfits. Dimitrov wore a brown leather jacket over a white T-shirt, while González donned a white Prada jacket, exuding effortless elegance.

Following the event, Dimitrov shared photos and videos from the show on Instagram, captioning one post with: “Moda. Chic. E l mio amore! @prada.” González responded with a simple yet profound message: “te amo,” meaning “I love you” in Spanish. This public declaration of affection quickly became one of their most talked-about moments of the year.

A Blossoming Romance

The couple's relationship, first confirmed on Dimitrov's birthday in May 2025, has been marked by public displays of affection and support. Earlier in the year, during Wimbledon, Dimitrov suffered a rare injury that forced him to withdraw from the tournament. González expressed her pride and support for him through social media, referring to him as “the love of my life.”

As Dimitrov enters his off-season, the pair continues to spend quality time together, with their appearances at events like Milan Fashion Week showcasing the strength of their bond.
