

Cartier Celebrates Diwali 2025 with Glamour and High Jewellery

Published on 06 Oct 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Cartier celebrated Diwali 2025 with an exclusive gathering, bringing together Suhana Khan and other friends of the Maison. The event focused on Panthère High Jewellery creations, offering a luxurious glimpse into the brand's latest masterpieces.

The backdrop was a dramatic crimson, which instantly added richness and depth to the display. Models presented the jewels in a living tableau, allowing each piece to shimmer under the lights. This setup highlighted Cartier's exquisite craftsmanship, making the jewels the undeniable centerpiece of the evening.

Highlighting Iconic Timepieces

In addition to the high jewellery showcase, Cartier emphasized the Ballon Bleu de Cartier watch. The campaign linked the timepiece to Diwali's spirit, symbolizing radiance, tradition, and modern elegance. By pairing heritage with contemporary design, Cartier reinforced its position as a celebrated luxury brand during the festive season.

London Diwali Bash

Separately, Cartier and Condé Nast Traveller hosted a star-studded Diwali party in London. This celebration has grown into a highly anticipated annual event on London's social calendar. Guests enjoy a blend of culture, glamour, and Cartier's signature sparkle, making it a must-attend festive gathering.

Through both intimate and grand celebrations, Cartier's Diwali 2025 events perfectly combined luxury, tradition, and modern flair. From Panthère High Jewellery to Ballon Bleu watches, the Maison offered an enchanting festive experience, delighting guests in India and across the globe.
