

Kendall and Kylie Jenner Shine at Schiaparelli's Spring 2026

Published on 06 Oct 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

At Schiaparelli's Spring 2026 show, Kendall Jenner made a striking entrance, closing the runway in a sheer black gown adorned with horsehair polka dots and matching opera gloves. Her ensemble, a testament to Schiaparelli's dramatic flair, captivated the audience and solidified her status as a runway favorite.

Kylie Jenner: Front Row Support

Seated in the front row, Kylie Jenner donned a shimmering metallic silver gown with dramatic fringing, paired with a molded metal clutch. Her presence was more than just a fashion statement; she shared a heartfelt Instagram post celebrating her sister's achievement, captioning it, "My sister closed Schiaparelli!!!! so that means I kinda did too right. DREAM NIGHT."

A Stylish Sisters' Night Out

Post-show, the Jenner sisters showcased their individual styles during a night out in Paris. Kendall embraced vintage elegance in a Spring/Summer 1995 John Galliano pin-up dress, featuring a gray peplum top and black midi skirt. Therefore complementing by pointed black stilettos and a sleek bun. Kylie opted for a Parisian chic look with a black bandeau mini dress adorned with a chest bow, accessorized with a brown leather Coperni bag, rust red mules, and a beige trench coat draped over her arm.

Fashion Week Highlights

Throughout Paris Fashion Week, both sisters have made notable appearances. Kendall has graced the runways of L'Oréal Paris and The Row, while Kylie attended Tom Ford show, each showcasing their fashion sensibilities.

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com