

Kylie Jenner Dazzles in Paper Couture at Maison Margiela Show

Published on 06 Oct 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Kylie Jenner made a striking appearance at the Maison Margiela Spring/Summer 2026 show during Paris Fashion Week. She wore a sheer white minidress crafted entirely from paper, featuring delicate netting adorned with tiny paper embellishments. The ensemble was completed with matching paper tights, white wedge heels with pleated toes, and silver statement earrings. Kylie accessorized with a black box purse and black oval sunglasses, exuding confidence and style.

Behind the Scenes

Sharing her excitement on social media, Kylie posted close-up clips of her outfit, commenting that it was “made of paper,” and tagged the fashion house. Her appearance garnered significant attention, with fans and fashion enthusiasts praising her bold choice and the innovative design.

A Family Affair

Earlier in the week, Kylie attended the Schiaparelli Spring/Summer 2026 show to support her sister, Kendall Jenner, who closed the runway in a sheer black gown adorned with polka dots and paired with opera gloves. Kylie shared a carousel of photos of them getting ready for the event, expressing her pride and excitement.

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com